

TIMEBEAM BY DESIGN LIMITED

TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF SALE

Our aim is to supply reliable, innovative products, if we fail in any way, we try to put the matter right.

Our warranty terms support the above by repairing or replacing a product that is found to be faulty due to our failings, we are however a 'return to base' operation, meaning that it is your responsibility to get the product back to us at your cost.

Our FAQ page, which forms a part of these terms, answers almost everything you might want to know, if not, please send us an email to action@timebeam.com.

The title to any goods shipped to you remains that of Timebeam By Design Limited until such time as the liability of any outstanding debt is discharged.
